Miscellaneous News

WASHINGTON June 21 —Attorney General Williams has returned

NEW YORK June 20 —The strikers are all quiet to day Five thousand out of seven thousand sugar refiners are on a strike. The striking piano makers propose to march to the Steinway factory to morrow morning and endeavor to induce the men working there to join them

PHILADELPHIA, June 20 —The daily meetings of the strikers are suspended, in consequence of the small attendance

The Peace Jubilee

BOSTON June 20 —Nearly 30 000 persons are at the Coliseum to day 30 000 being spectators The features of the first part of the programme were singing by Madame Rudersdorff "Bright Seraphim" performance of Strauss Concert Waltz "Thousand and One Nights"—Strauss himself leading Chorus and Fantasia, by Wehli The second part of the programme opened with the singing of an aria from the "Magic Flute" by Madame Leutner in which she made a greater triumph than has been accorded her since the commencement of the Jubilee The Garde Republic Band of Paris next appeared on the platform and was greeted with every sort of friendly demonstration When the band, under the leadership of M Paulus unexpectedly struck up "Hail Columbia" a scene of indescribable enthusiasm ensued—the cheers drowning the music. At the conclusion of this demonstration the organ and bands commenced the "Marseillaise" when the excitement was renewed till the audience appeared almost wild with delight—the chorus orchestra bands and audience joining in the song On Saturday there will be a chorus by colored children—two hundred and fifty voices—to join with the colored jubilee singers

Political Reformers, So-called

NEW YORK, June 20 —The conference of political reformers at the Fifth Avenue Hotel elected Jacob C Cox President, W C Bryant and Gen D x Vice Presidents

Gen Cox stated the object of the meeting to be the fusion of the elements opposed to Grant

Senator Trumbull rose and said that while not fully endorsing the nominations of the Cincinnati Convention the Liberal Republicans had gone so far that to retract was impossible If a man of knowledge and reputation could be brought into the field he (Trumbull) would support him but under existing state of affairs he saw no option but to support Greeley

The night session was exceedingly stormy and inharmonious and continued until long after midnight

Edward Atkinson and Parke Godwin made speeches strongly against Greeley

Wm Larshemer of Buffalo vehemently supported Schurz and proposed to call on States to get an expression of the sentiments of delegates from each

John Forsyth representing Alabama was for Greeley as also Rice of Alabama Connecticut was represented by David A Wells who said that he was determined under no circumstances, to support Grant Whether he would support Greeley depended materially whether his opinion of Greeley was more favorable than of other candidates presented

Ex Governor English representing the Democracy of Connecticut was for Greeley

Gen Warren, of Iowa had not been in favor of Greeley but would be if nominated

Both Hillyer of Georgia, Watterson, editor of the Louisville Courier Journal and Judge Brinkerhoff of Ohio made stormy Greeley speeches

Schurz made the chief speech and said he must support Greeley as a necessity

The Conference shortly after one A M, adjourned

LONG BRANCH June 20 —A number of Democrats representing different States were in conference here to-day for the purpose of securing a straight nomination at Baltimore

NEW HAVEN June 20 —Delegates to the Baltimore Convention met here to day Though they are pledged to no candidates the expression was unanimously in favor of Greeley and Brown

LOUISVILLE, June 20 —The Democratic State Convention met at Frankfort to day and elected delegates to the Baltimore Convention It instructed so as to unite all elements of opposition to Grant The delegates are all in favor of Greeley and Brown

[illegible] June 20 —The Democratic State Convention met at Lincoln to day and adopted resolutions endorsing the Cincinnati Convention Delegates appointed to Baltimore were instructed to act in accordance with the will of the Convention

Eccentric Characters

[From the Boston Globe]

The greatest men that history records have not been without their little weaknesses, somewhat flattering to humanity because proving them to be simply men and not demigods Thus Sir Walter Raleigh in his best days was a consummate dandy and it is said appeared in court with six thousand dollars worth of diamonds in his shoes while his sword hilt and baldric were studded with precious stones of great value Bruyere whose written lines were all aglow with poetry and wit was coarse heavy and vulgarly stupid in society and, as a contemporary declares, was in consequence the subject of many a practical joke Next there occurs to us the great philosopher Descartes who had a perfect passion for wigs not unlike Sir Richard Steele who would sometimes spend forty guineas on a black peruke Corneille the French Shakespeare, spoke in language so ungrammatical as to mortify his friends constantly while his conversation was the acme of stupidity What was said of Descartes might apply also to him, viz, that he had received his intellectual wealth from nature in solid bars not in current coin? Who ever thinks of Goldsmith without calling up that irrepressible peach colored coat? It is as immortal as its master and one never forgets the German flute that fed and lodged the itinerant in his wanderings over half of Europe Yet the man who wrote "The Deserted Village," "Citizen of the World" &c, couldn't talk," it was said any more than a parrot

According to Johnson Pope had such a high opinion of himself as to think he was one of the pivots of the system of the world the little deformed satirist was pride personified Vanity builds its nest and hatches its brood in high places Napoleon prided himself on the smallness of his hands and feet Sir Walter Scott was prouder of being Sheriff of Selkirkshire than of his reputation as the author of Waverley Byron was vain to excess vain of his genius, his rank, and vain even of his vices What contrasts present themselves, as the panorama of the mind unrolls the imprint of memory! Dryden the illustrious poet, was yet all that he described himself to be "Slow in conversation dull in humor saturnine, and reserved" The trite saying that no man is a hero to his own valet has abundant illustration The Count de Grammont once surprised Cardinal Richelieu jumping with his servant to see which could jump the highest and by joining in the ridiculous sport and permitting the Cardinal to beat him by a few inches he gained his fixed friendship and great political preferment Salvator Rosa was full of fun and frolic often playing in impromptu comedies, and was more than once detected by his friends in the streets of Rome dressed as a mountebank Mediocrity is ever voluble and genius oftenest reticent Addison's conversational deficiences are well known, nor was the great master of English literature himself ignorant of the fact, as he used to declare that he had a good bank at home, but didn't carry small change with him

The favorite recreation of Petavius the learned Jesuit, was, after application to study and writing four hours, to twirl his chair steadily for five or ten minutes That profound divine, Samuel Clark, after becoming weary over his books, would often place the chairs and table in a row, and be discovered jumping over them consecutively back and forth Cujas, the famous lawyer, studied lying on the floor with his books about him Odd enough most certainly are the fancies of genius Spinoza took a strange and absorbing delight in seeing spiders fight, returning to this strange amusement frequently during the day while a singular contrast and yet partial resemblance was seen in Maghabecchi the famous librarian of the Duke of Tuscany He was passionately fond of spiders, fed and protected them had his rooms filled with them and would not permit them to be disturbed He was a profound student, yet hourly returned to his strange pets, as a relaxation and amusement Moses Mendelssohn called the Jewish Socrates, passed hours together counting the tiles on a neighboring roof an occupation which he found very composing and quieting mentally and physically Cowper, while a prey to the deepest melancholy, a sort of monomania, indeed wrote that famous burlesque, John Gilpin and passed his leisure hours in making bird cages and breeding rabbits

Mina the justly famous Swiss painter always had a room full of cats and one upon his shoulder while drawing Even Dr Johnson the blunt old philosopher petted his cat constantly and kept it with him at night when he made it quite comfortable at the foot of the bed On the contrary it will be remembered that Henry III of France could not remain in the room with a cat Sometimes the idiosyncrasies of great men are repulsive, for instance Goethe, the noblest German of them all had a fondness for snakes, and petted a tame adder, while at the same time he had a most unaccountable aversion to dogs which was exhibited whenever he saw one Erasmus the profound scholar and philosopher was terrified and would almost faint at the sight of fish Thomson's greatest delight was to saunter into his garden and eat ripe peaches off the trellises with his hands in his pockets an invariable practice in the fruit season and Gray said he should like to pass his life on a sofa reading French novels The cynical but profound Rochefoucauld sought inspiration in raw onions and our own Choate like Dr Shaw the naturalist would drink ten cups of strong tea at a sitting Thackeray felt so sensitive at the diminutive character of his nose that he never forgot to present a full face to you when talking and on all occasions to prevent exposing his profile Lamb stuttered so as to nearly tumble over his half uttered sentences yet the pen of Elia glided like a fairy wand as it recorded the lines now so tenderly cherished

Cromwell who was said to live upon stilts sometimes came down and laid aside his Puritanic gravity, and played at blind man's buff with his attendants showing all the eagerness of earnest and frolicsome boyhood Charles II of England romped in St James Park surrounded by a troop of those diminutive spaniels which bear his name also passing hours in feeding the ducks Beethoven had a passion for paddling in cold water and carried his fancy to such an extent that the floor of his room was flooded and the water would filter through to the lower stories Sometimes he would at morning run bare feet through the dew grass Shelley was passionately fond of sailing paper boats in the park and on one occasion finding himself three without paper save a fifty pound note he hesitatingly gave it the proper shape and launched it on the water running round the pond to receive his venture as it came to shore at the opposite bank Some one has said there is no genius in which there is not an element of madness

A commercial contract has been entered into [illegible] the Mexican Government and the [illegible] Railroad Company the principal stipulations of which are that the company is to run a monthly line of steamers between Acapulco and Panama touching at Conusco and Ton a State of Chiapas and Salina Cruz and Puerto Angel State of Oaxaca The Government agrees to pay a subsidy of $2 000 a month and remit all port light house and anchorage duties The first steamer will commence making trips on the first of July and the contract to last for five years The Diario Oficial the Mexican official journal, hails this commercial enterprise as one that will yield substantial results and seems to have no doubt of its entire success

The Giant Powder Factory of Bandmann, Neilson & Co , near the middle road, between the Ocean House road and Cliff House road, southwest of the Odd Fellows' Cemetery, exploded this evening, soon after 6 o'clock The shock was felt all over the city, like the fall of a heavy [illegible], shaking the [illegible] even down to the city front. A cloud of pale smoke and dust drifted over the hills and into the city Along Thirteenth street, near Mission, the cloud of smoke and dust was so dense as to obscure objects a few blocks distant Word has been brought into the city that several persons are killed, but nothing definite is yet known either as to the cause or result, beyond the destruction of the factory. Officers have gone out to ascertain the facts.

LATER —It was not Bandman, Neilson & Co.'s factory which exploded this evening, but a quantity of Hercules powder, about 1,500 pounds, belonging to the California Powder Company, stored in a shed of small value The shed was blown to atoms and a hole excavated in the ground larger than a full grown haystack, but nobody killed There was nobody around the premises at the time An order has been pending in the Board of Supervisors for months, compelling companies to remove their powder from that locality, but has not yet been adopted, the companies having been able to stave off action from week to week. The order will probably now be adopted at once

The attendance at the ward club meetings called for this evening is very small, and in several of the wards no organization has been effected

THE DEVASTATION AROUND MOUNT VESUVIUS.

[Naples Correspondence London News.]

My eyes are so burned with the dust that I can hardly keep them open. I have visited the country beyond the [illegible] of [illegible] The sky was as black as ink, the wind [illegible] and showers of [illegible] more and more as I [illegible] The ground under my feet [illegible] and the detonations [illegible] as ever. On my way I met [illegible] of distinction, Neapolitan [illegible] who had gone on the same [illegible] as myself. The down-pour had, however [illegible] ro deant, and they [illegible] returning in haste to Naples. Vast [illegible] are [illegible] ruined In some places the lava presents the aspect of an enormous lake of [illegible] The heat is insufferable and the [illegible] horrible I have observed that in [illegible] the hot lava has set fire to old trees

The inhabitants seem quite bewildered and incapable of taking a resolution I hear that the emigration amounts to something like 50,000 inhabitants Many of those who escaped in time are now returning with [illegible] things and seem doubtful what they are to do. Mattresses and boxes and oxen and blankets are all huddled up together [illegible] while soldiers, one whole regiment, are on duty, and many [illegible] with guns on their [illegible] kept guard in order that the thieves may not augment the general ruin. A large number of these gentry have been caught and put into prison, but notwithstanding the severe measures adopted, small bands of robbers seem to have appeared in many places I can hardly believe that the soil I tread upon is that of La Bella Napoli Where are the fine orange groves, with their sweet perfume, and the rich vineyards and the gay peasants, clad in bright colors, singing and dancing under the brilliant blue sky, close to the silvery sea dotted over with transparent white sails? All are gone

PLANTATION BITTERS!
S. T.—1860—X.

This wonderful vegetable restorative is the sheet-anchor of the feeble and debilitated. As a tonic and cordial for the aged and languid it has no equal among stomachics As a remedy for the nervous weakness to which women are especially subject, it is superseding every other stimulant. In all climates, tropical, temperate or frigid. it acts as a specific in every species of disorder which undermines the bodily strength and breaks down the animal spirits.

Notes on the Philadelphia Convention

[illegible] full proceedings [illegible] Philadelphia [illegible] are now [illegible] more im- [illegible] respectability, more [illegible] the vast and varied inter- [illegible] more nearly in accord [illegible] President and Vice President of the [illegible] universally [illegible] the scene was more magnificent and the enthusiasm higher than when Grant was nominated at Chicago four years ago. Nor was it merely a Convention of politicians. Men unused to politics and party modes but representing the laboring interests, the capital and the great enterprises of the country were in attendance and testified by their participation the belief that the continued ascendancy of the Republican party and the re-election of Grant were necessary to insure a continuance of national peace, progress and prosperity. The confidence of the American people in the Republican party was strikingly manifested at the Convention. There was reason for it. Spite of all croakings to the contrary the country was never so grandly prosperous and progressive as now. Never was it more tranquil; never was the authority of the United States so much respected or so well obeyed; not for forty years has there been such a degree of security for the citizen without regard to his political opinions. Republican policy has so far extinguished party rancor that the opposing parties do not stand toward each other in the attitude of enemies, as they did for many years before the war. Our politics, all public interests, are on a higher plane.

The news of the magnificent success in the recent general election in this State was announced in the Convention on the second day of the session. The incident added greatly to the enthusiasm of the occasion. Oregon was cheered, and loud demonstrations were made in her honor. It was a distinction for our State to win this notice and attention, by so signal a victory. A delegate remarked that he had seen the name of Oregon in the list of States counted for the Greeley Democracy, but that table evidently needed reconstruction, and Oregon in future would go on the other side.

No Convention more memorable ever assembled in this country; no Convention of a party in power ever contained so few persons connected with the Administration represented by such party. The strength and ability of this Convention were made up by independent citizens acting from unselfish motives and desiring the welfare of the country. The Republican party takes its stand for the present contest, points to its records and achievements, and makes a calm and confident but earnest appeal to the unbiased judgment of the people.

European and Oregon Land Company

A large edition of a pamphlet, setting forth the enterprise and objects of the European and Oregon Land Company, has been published. The lands of this company embrace the railroad grants of Western Oregon, that is, the grants to the Oregon and California and the Oregon Central railroads. A valuable descriptive sketch of the country is furnished in connection with this land enterprise. The object is to induce immigration. Arrangements are making to organize the Company fully, and to establish its working agencies in different parts of Europe. Among its Trustees are several eminent bankers in Germany and England, and some of the leading capitalists and business men of San Francisco. The President of the Company is Jos S Wilson, late Commissioner of the U S General Land Office. Many thousand copies of the pamphlet above referred to have been printed, both in English and German, and scattered throughout the Eastern States and different parts of Europe. A special agent has just departed for England and Germany to get the business of the Company in working order there. Through this source a large addition to our population may be anticipated within a year or two.

In a former article we alluded to a meeting to be held at New York by those disappointed in the results of the Cincinnati Convention, with a view of getting Greeley off the track and consolidating the opposition to Grant on some other candidate. The telegraph stated that this meeting would be held on the 30th June. This was a mistake. The 20th June was the day appointed. Dispatches of to day give a partial account of the proceedings. It appears that many of those present thought Mr Greeley very unfit to be a candidate, but they didn't know how to get him out of the way. The people, however, will attend to that in November.

Referring to a statement published by an Olympia paper to the effect that Dr E R Geary, of Linn county, is the "coming man for United States Senator, and that he is to be brought forward as a Greeley candidate by a combination of "conservative" Republicans and Democrats the Albany Register says that this will be news to Dr Geary himself as he is not and has not been a candidate for the position. We happen to know that Dr Geary, though not a politician and seeking no political preferment, is a supporter of Grant, and is not in sympathy with the Greeley crowd.

The Herald's "Colonel, who was telling us a short time ago that Ben Holladay was a man of "mighty capital," with no end of "brains and "financial ability, now tells us that he is a "bankrupt " and a " financial montebank. The first opinion was [illegible] ed while Holladay was advertising in the Herald. The last one is delivered confessedly to "get even " with Holladay for taking his advertisements out. This incident shows what small money will subsidize the journal which is issued from the shop that claims to vend the only "honest" opinions that are uttered in Portland.

It may now be considered as [illegible] tain that Mr Greeley will be the [illegible] candidate for President. The Baltimore Convention will certainly [illegible] organs as the Portland Herald [illegible] at Eugene [illegible] getting ready to blow for him. They should begin immediately [illegible] selves to the business. It will [illegible] and hard [illegible] first to practice [illegible] upon [illegible] govern the ventages with their fingers and give it breath with their mouths.

It is believed that two thirds of the Legislature are willing [illegible] and police [illegible] to his city he [illegible] municipal rights. Mr B Goldsmith and others got this police ring saddled on us in order to get the locks bill through the Legislature. And by the way this locks business is also to be investigated and parties to it held to strict account.

OREGON

Spiritualists' convention at Woodburn this week.

The Salem Statesman says there is no small pox in the city.

[illegible] the Oregon City market has gone down [illegible] cents per pound.

An Indian known as Muttering Bill fell dead at Oregon City on Thursday.

The Plaindealer says that the Coos Bay wagon road will be completed in about two weeks.

The Oregon State Agricultural Society owns 140 acres of land near Salem. The improvements on it are valued at $10 000.

A farmer in Union county killed 2 000 ground squirrels during May last. May wasn't a good month for ground squirrels either.

Wm Rowland was arrested at Silverton last week on the charge of stealing from Mr J G McCraw of Marion county, and lodged in jail.

The Salmon river road to the coast is in excellent condition and many pleasure seekers are wending their way down to the sounding sea.

The Wallamet Baptist Association is in session at Oregon City and will probably adjourn to day. Considerable business has been transacted. about fifty persons being present from various parts of the State.

The Grand Royal Arch Chapter of A F & A M for the State of Oregon, convened at Salem yesterday at 9 A. M. The Annual Convocation of the Grand Lodge will be held at the same place beginning next Monday.

Albany Collegiate Institute closes Friday June 28th. Examination of classes commences Tuesday morning. Lecture before the Literary Union by Rev Dr Lindsley, of this city, on Thursday evening. Literary exercises by the students on Friday evening.

At a regular meeting of Falls Encampment, No 4, I O O F, held in Oregon City last Tuesday, the following officers were elected for the ensuing term C O T Williams, C P; W P Burns, H P; A J Apperson, S W; C E Warren Scribe, S D Pope, J W.

Mr A B Owens of Eugene, accompanied by his own and several other families, passed through Salem yesterday morning en route for the Palouse Valley, where they intend to locate permanently. They will turn their attention to stock raising, and propose to engage in that business on an extensive scale.

The Democrat, at Albany, says "A fair haired love-sick youth of Benton county, presented his 'girl' with a pair of those new-fangled metalic garters on Christmas. He thought they were the latest thing in bracelets, and only discovered his mistake on requesting her to 'try them on ' He don't call there any more.

The Albany Register of the 21st says "Quite a number of farmers have assured us that unless we have rain soon the wheat crop of Linn county will not be an average one. For weeks past the atmosphere has been unusually dry for this valley, with little or no dews falling. Without rain the grain will not fill, and the yield will be greatly decreased. O, for a good healthy shower.

The Central Baptist Association held their annual meeting at McMinnville last week and transacted their business with a degree of harmony that promised great good in the labors of the ensuing year. The introductory sermon was delivered by R C. Hill. The following officers were elected Elder Hunsaker, Moderator, C H Mattoon, Clerk, A W Stannard, Treasurer.

THE TERRITORIES

The Montana cricket crop is copious. Lizards scarce.

Idaho City revels in the sensation of a double headed calf.

The Democratic Territorial Convention of Utah indorsed Greeley.

The Seattle Dispatch of the 13th inst reached us last night. Eight days is a good while for that distance in this fast age.

The wool clip of Thurston county, Washington Territory, is estimated at thirty thousand pounds, and large quantities are now being shipped to San Francisco.

The Baptist Society of Seattle are erecting a new church, which, when completed, will be the finest church edifice on the Sound, if not in the Territory.

H T Lovins formerly of this city and an old 'print,' has been appointed Postmaster at Klickitat City, a new Postoffice established in eastern Washington Territory.

High water is reported from all sections of Utah and Idaho Territory, and consequent great destruction of bridges, fields and crops. All the bridges on Bear river have been swept away.

A single raft of logs was received recently at the Port Blakely Mills on the Sound, which contained one million one hundred thousand feet. It was the largest raft ever sent down the Sound says the Tribune.

The following is the amount of the assessment of property, real and personal, in Olympia for the year 1872. Real estate $1 9 [illegible] personal property $254 [illegible] Total $703 652 The tax for municipal purposes is $3 514 [illegible] road tax $2 527 78 Total, $6 041 97.

From the Walla Walla Union. The line of the Northern Pacific Railroad, as now located, we presume finally passes up the west side of the Columbia river, leaving a mile or two between it and the river at Wallula. It crosses the Columbia some three miles above the mouth of Snake river and thence in a southeasterly direction, through the Palouse country to the lake. Parties just over from Yakima say that the surveyors are now setting the grade stakes.

A Puget Sound paper says "The Oregonian has got the nightmare, and got it bad. Ben Holladay his railroads and his ships seem to be the bane of its existence, crushing the [illegible] of the State while building up his [illegible] Ben is no doubt a very mighty man using his crushers in this manner but we wish we had two Ben Holladay's one at each end of the Territory. the Sound would then have railroad connection with the outer world [illegible]

It is not many months since Horace Greeley wrote the following to B Gratz Brown and signed his name to it: "General, I long ago learned that principles were inconvenient and that he who makes his own aggrandizement his aim must wear them loosely or put them aside altogether. I doubt that you would ever have attained your present dizzy elevation had you permitted yourself to be encumbered with them. But I am old fashioned and cannot change my camp or my flag with your admired facility." It is plain that H G would make a pretty mess of it if he attempted to tell what he knows about his mind.

The selection of Charles Francis Adams Jr to deliver the Fourth of July oration before the authorities of Boston is the first case where the third generation has performed that service. The father was the orator in 1843 and the grandfather in 1783 just half a century apart. Hon Josiah Quincy was the orator in 1770 and 1826. His son Josiah was the orator in 1832. Hon James T Austin was orator in 1826 and his son Ivers J Austin in 1839.

The natural science man who edits the Cleveland Leader says "Lovers of celery and lettuce will be pleased to learn that every stalk of the former and leaf of the latter contains 10 000 000 parasites to the square inch which taken into the human stomach become tape worms of the [illegible] pattern. The poorest family can possess a few of these [illegible] cheaper.

Suppose We Reverse the Attack

[From the Salem Statesman

We are informed that one B Goldsmith is engaged with the Herald in the attempt to break down the railroad enterprises of this State and that to the end that the Herald's diatribes may be made effectual he and they are translating the Herald's articles into German and circulating them broadcast in Germany. This to damage the sale of railroad bonds in that country. In this way they may succeed in making it more difficult to negotiate loans upon such bonds than it has been heretofore. But that is the only possible way in which this little mutual [illegible] [illegible] Ben Holladay [illegible] of this State. The [illegible] attempt to break down the Oregon railroad companies and [illegible] impossible for them to complete their roads is entirely of a political and personal character. Ben Holladay assisted the Republican party to gain its recent victory in this State. Thereby he assisted to defeat the consummation of a deep laid scheme of the Canal and Locks Company to further defraud the State, and at the same time make it probable that the Herald can prey but a short time longer upon the people under the sanction of the Litigant law. This touched these men in their pockets and hence their exhibition of personal spleen against Holladay and their reprehensible efforts to damage the character of the State abroad.

Now suppose that we should reverse things awhile? Mr B Goldsmith is a large owner in the Lock and Dam Swindle Company. Suppose that Mr Holladay on account of personal dislike of political anger should inaugurate a systematic effort to break down that company altogether, and to bankrupt Mr Goldsmith. Suppose he or anybody should now begin measures to depreciate the value of the State bonds, upon the pawn of which Goldsmith and his fellow stockholders borrowed money, and to make it appear everywhere in the money markets that future loans to the company would be perilous on account of the limited possibilities of future trade on the Wallamet, the tricky dishonest character of the persons carrying on the work and the utter insolvency of the incorporators. Would Mr Goldsmith view this as fair treatment? or would anybody consider it otherwise than as extremely damaging to the property interests of the people of the Wallamet Valley? Mr Goldsmith should remember that such a warfare can be as easily carried on as the one he and the Herald are waging against Holladay and the people of the State, and that when he attacks vitally important enterprises he cannot reasonably expect those immediately affected to be quietly passive under his blows. As for the Herald the people will dispose of that, by withdrawal of its license to plunder, and let it starve.

MR GREELEY PAINTS HIS OWN PORTRAIT.—In 1868 Horace Greeley painted the most truthful likeness of his present self that has yet been drawn. He delivered a lecture at Montreal and received distinguished honors at the hands of the Canadians. In the course of a speech made at a banquet tendered him by the city authorities Mr Greeley said:

Mr Webster was not only a gentleman but he had the elements of moral greatness and he had faults as well. He failed only in one respect and in this respect I differ from him—he wanted to be President and I don't [Cheers and Laughter.] But for that one misfortune he would have been the greatest man America ever produced. We have seen our greatest man Mr Chase making the same blunder. I have seen men who had the disease early and died of it at a very old age [Laughter] General Lewis Cass died at about eighty two and up to the day of his death he wanted to be President. No one ever escapes who once catches the disease: he lives and dies in the delusion. Being a reader and an observer at an early age I saw how it poisoned and paralyzed the very best of our public men, and I have carefully avoided it. It was easy then to speak for truth and justice when they needed an advocate when those who threatened could execute no vengeance that you dreaded. So then, I think you are happy in that respect if in no other for none of you in Canada expect to become the sovereign of your country. [Cheers and laughter.] That enables you to have a purer press and more fearless public men than perhaps you would otherwise have. We at least in our day have a President elect who did not try to be President. He was elected mainly on that account. [Renewed laughter.] Let a public man honestly go forward, saying what he believes to be just, doing what he thinks is right, and, though he may not probably be President he can enjoy a very large measure of freedom of opinion as well as freedom of action—[Hear, hear!]—though freedom of opinion is the very last thing that a free people is disposed to concede to its public men.

PATERNAL GOVERNMENTS. We hear much said lately about the importance of having a Government that was truly paternal one that would hold the shield of protection over a citizen wherever he might travel at home or abroad, that would visit with severe punishment any infringement on his rights or privileges. But in all our recollection we do not remember any Government that exercises such a tender regard not only for its own citizens but those who visit its territory from abroad on religious cares intent or other beneficial objects as does Switzerland. For instance we notice that the following order was recently issued by the parental authorities of that country. "A number of so called Mormon emissaries having had the impudence of trying to entice virtuous men and women from this republic be it decreed that any town or village magistrate be authorized to sentence such emissaries to corporal punishment in accordance with the law of 1861." It is asserted that in most commendable obedience to this decree a Mormon missionary while engaged lately in that liberal republic in converting Gentiles to the Brigham faith, was soundly flogged by order of a village magistrate at Randers in Jutland.—S F [illegible] Union.

Boss' Tweed has sent his family out of the country. It is composed of Mr and Mrs William M Tweed Jr, Mrs Wm M Tweed, Miss Josie Tweed, Miss Jennie Tweed, Master George Tweed, A Tweed and Master [illegible] Tweed. With a purse of ten or fifteen millions of dollars to back them their establishment in the gay city of Paris whither they are said to be bound can be supported with considerable style. The [illegible] of the Tweeds still remains in New York city for the present.

SATURDAY MORNING JUNE [illegible] 1872

CITY.

CANINE NUISANCES —While it is a fact that Portland has many very many points of excellence in the manners of its people their benevolence social qualities generosity public spirit enterprise commercial activity and all the other no less important public and private virtues there are many defects and shortcomings which become proper for us as a conservator of public taste and morals to expose Laying aside the fact that some of our streets and sidewalks are in a bad condition of repair that our system of sewerage is defective that in many parts of the city certain [illegible] are too little regarded that teamsters as a general thing, career up and down the thoroughfares at a too rapid gait, and that the streets do not always secure proper attention from the sprinklers when they are dusty there is still another grave fault which Portland possesses That fault consists in the number of canines which can be seen wandering around through the streets both by night and day Now the dog as we are particularly fond of remarking for the simple reason that we are particularly fond of some dogs is really a noble brute but the esteem in which he is held depends in a remarkable measure on the ownership of the dog It is a sentiment closely akin to instinct that every man puts an exorbitant price on his own dog that he exaggerates the virtues and overlooks the foibles of the animal—for a "fellow feeling makes us wondrous kind" etc. One is very apt to admire his friend's dog and despise the canine of his enemy In some latitudes the general run of strange dogs are voted a nuisance and frequently slaughtered by heartless [illegible] or reckless boys In Portland we have policemen bad boys and regulations to suppress the too rapid increase of the canine species and, besides we have plenty of these animals too. This is not so directly attributable to official [illegible] on the part of our enterprising dog-pelter, as it is to the fact that there are scores of [illegible] curs of low and exalted degree—which have neither proprietors nor local habitation and which wander at their own sweet wills without let or hindrance We fear that this sad condition of affairs will continue to exist until some more effective means are resorted to Meantime let [illegible] and Vandals arise to glut their savage ire on the canine cannibals! Extirpate the race Compel every man to clothe his dog with a $2 50 [illegible], and every vagabond cur to claim an [illegible], or leave the corporate limits within a [illegible] twenty hour notification

A CHINAMAN FOUND DEAD —A Chinaman was found dead yesterday morning by his fellow workmen on L street, between Eighth and Ninth, in East Portland. His name was Ah Woyu and he was aged about 35 years In company with a number of other Chinamen he had been engaged in working on the streets in East Portland for some time For several days past he had been complaining, and on Thursday evening it appears that his comrades, becoming convinced that Ah Woyu would die compelled him to leave the hut where they were stopping He did so and passed the night in some brush near the house The following morning he was found lying dead wrapped up in some old blankets The Coroner was sent for several times, but could not be found Yesterday the Chinamen procured a plain pine coffin and placed the remains of the defunct celestial in it. Interment will probably not take place until the Coroner holds an inquest over the body which will probably be to day

COMPULSORY VACCINATION —We have received a letter on this subject from one of our citizens in which he says In all large cities there is a system of public vaccination by which a large class of people who are unable to pay a physician's regular fee can have the operation of vaccination performed gratuitously There are many persons in Portland who absolutely cannot afford to pay the usual fee of from $1 to $2 50 to be vaccinated In Europe and the Colonies belonging to Great Britain to a great extent vaccination is compulsory and those failing to comply with the regulation are subject to a severe fine Hence the smallpox makes but little ravage in many of those densely populated cities If such measures be adopted here, it will be necessary for the authorities to require the physician to be assured his vaccine is pure and uncontaminated with scrofula or other impurities of the blood '

MUSIC ON THE FOURTH —A correspondent of the Bulletin makes the following suggestion in [illegible] to a grand chorus as a part of the programme of the celebration on the Fourth "I would suggest that the musicians of Portland [illegible] the Philharmonic Society the Turn Verein, the different choirs of the city and [illegible], call a meeting toward making some [illegible] to participate in the exercises on that day." The same correspondent thinks that "there could be gathered together at least 200 singers and from 25 to 30 instrumentalists and with such a number well drilled under a competent conductor some of our National airs such as the Star Spangled Banner etc could be rendered with such grandeur and effect as to make it the feature of the day

TEAM FRIGHTENED —Several Chinamen, engaged in flying a kite yesterday ventured too near the team of a farmer which stood before Quinn's fish market. The tail of the kite passed very close to the heads of the animals A pair of badly frightened equines was the result They ran down Washington to First and then turned up First Some half a dozen venturesome individuals vainly endeavored to stay the horses in their impetuous career but they continued on up to Madison street and then made a straight line for the suburbs We have been unable to ascertain results

A PLEASANT TIME —A very pleasant time was experienced on Thursday evening by those who attended the moonlight excursion given under the auspices of the Good Templars of Multnomah Lodge No 12 A large number of ladies and gentlemen accompanied the excursion The boat proceeded to Vancouver and remaining a few minutes, returned to the city about one o clock

INSURANCE PAID —On the second day after the fire occurred in Capt. Ankeny's building, and as soon as the damages could be ascertained the Liverpool, London & Globe Insurance Co paid the sum of $4 000 to Mr Ankeny This was the amount of the estimated loss Mr M A King agent for that Company in this city drew a check for that amount

DECLINED —A letter has been received by the Committee on Invitations from the Fire Department of Albany in which the invitation extended them to participate in the coming celebration in this city, has been respectfully declined The assigned reason is that the citizens of that place propose to inaugurate a celebration of their own

DISCHARGED —The grand jury have been discharged for the present session of the Circuit Court, their further attendance on that body no being longer required They have submitted a report in reference to the condition of affairs in the county, none we presume being deemed required

EXCURSION —The Sabbath school which has connected with St Stephen's Chapel will have an excursion to day to Cornelius The cars will stop near the Chapel to allow the excursionists an opportunity to get on board It will doubtless prove a pleasant occasion to all who may desire to attend.

HORTICULTURAL POMOLOGICAL AND FLORAL FAIR AT THE SKATING RINK

The State Horticultural Pomological and Floral Fair was inaugurated yesterday at the Skating Rink This is the second annual Fair held by the society in the State The Fair was to have been commenced on Thursday but owing to necessary work such as arranging tables booths etc the Fair did not really open until yesterday morning The display of fruits and flowers was much better than the exhibitions of the first Fair and should be regarded as an indication favorable to the future success of the society A public interest seems to have been awakened in that direction and from present appearances it is safe to prognosticate a successful future In truth it can be asserted that a finer display of cherries gooseberries raspberries strawberries and currants could not be better even in California which has long enjoyed a reputation of excelling throughout the Union in these varieties of fruits As for the exhibition of flowers it would be difficult to display a more beautiful or extended variety In the

FLORAL EXHIBITIONS

Mr Henry Miller stands quite conspicuous His flowers occupy a long table near the rear of the Rink and comprise the following varieties Cuphias, ladies cigar plant wax plants [illegible] ver form Australia India rubber plant tea plant wandering Jew [illegible] plant several varieties of fuchsia and roses cyrtus flagelliform night orange sogrus globosa opuntia cactus pin cushion cactus century plant variegated honeysuckle and several varieties of beautiful lilies

The Proserpina of Mr L G Pfunder of this city is by far the most beautiful thing on exhibition and includes the largest and most rare varieties of plants and flowers at the Rink It consisted of a large floral pyramid situated in the center of the room constructed in such a style that the plants are placed one tier above the other and rises to a height of ten or twelve feet from the floor The summit of this miniature pyramid is surmounted by an elegant bird cage which represents a castle From the joists is hung a large globe of blue glass which reaches to within a few feet of the top of the castle and all around this pyramid of flowers are hung a number of rustic baskets suspended in like manner the trailing plants in each of which hang down nearly to the floor On each side of the Proserpina are two cages, one containing two white cockatoos and the other a very large Australian and South American parrot In all Mr Pfunder has about 500 varieties of flowers Among the rarest and most important are to be found 20 varieties of fuchsias, 50 of geraniums 30 of Lady Washingtons, 12 of roses, 24 of double geraniums, 24 of Miss Pollock varieties 3 of hydranche 12 of heliotropes 12 of carnation pinks 24 of caloylarora 24 of running plants 6 of moss 12 of petunia 2 of lantana 3 specimens of ivy (new kind) 6 of acacias 12 of pansies 1 large rose geranium, and arbutolon tamrone Of tropical plants he has 100 varieties of coleus 24 of bigonias 100 cuttings of new bigonias a box containing 100 different varieties, including roses, geraniums, heliotropes, fuchsias etc and many other exotics too numerous to mention

Mr P Lammeroth, of the Pacific Nursery has on exhibition the following varieties 6 kinds of double geraniums 10 of the beautiful variegated geraniums, 10 of fuchsias 2 of bigonias 3 of heliotrope, 3 of padonias, 1 of fan palm a century plant, 1 strawberry geranium with berries, 2 of variegated running grapes, a cedar plant, (Abolrvich) 2 of flowering cactus one blue hydrangea 3 of euvonimus variegated and many others

Mr L Kiernan, of East Portland had a very choice variety of flowers We enumerate some of the principal varieties 20 varieties Lady Washington geraniums 13 of fuchsias 12 carnation pinks 3 of monthly roses

CONGREGATIONAL ASSOCIATION

SECOND DAY'S PROCEEDINGS

The Oregon Association of Congregational Churches now in session in this city worked principally yesterday upon the subject of Home Missions The matter being referred to a committee consisting of Messrs Condon Tenny Knight and Marsh was thoroughly considered and brought before the Association By their report it elicited considerable discussion and finally resulted in the formation of a Home Missionary Society for Oregon and the adjacent Territories This Society is to have charge of the local field yet it is to act as an auxiliary to the A H M Society under whose auspices the Congregational Churches of Oregon received their start Any person can become a member of this Society by paying any sum of money and signing his name to the Constitution

An interesting letter was read from Rev Myron Eells of Boise City Prof A J Anderson reported on the subject of Education and Rev F Walker on Foreign Missions

The Committee on Religious exercises reported as the preacher for this evening (Saturday) Rev Mr Huntington of Olympia To morrow (Sunday) Rev W R Butcher of Albany preaches the Communion Sermon The pulpit is occupied in the evening by Rev W A Tenny of Astoria After the sermon a Promise Meeting led by Prof A J Anderson of Forest Grove will be held There will be Congregational ministers in most of the pulpits to-morrow They will be filled as follows Presbyterian morning Rev Mr Huntington do evening Rev W R Butcher Methodist (Taylor St) morning Rev P S Knight Unitarian morning Rev Thos Condon do evening Rev P S Knight Lutheran morning Rev W A Tenny Hall street evening Rev Mr Huntington

FIRE —The wild clamor of the fire bells rang an alarm yesterday morning about 4 15 o clock It was some little time before the people aroused from their pleasant naps and endeavored to discover whether the alarm was false or not The shouts of fire fire which ran from mouth to mouth and the continued ringing of the bells caused every one to bestir themselves with a little more than ordinary activity The cracking of flames was heard and clouds of smoke were seen to issue from the vicinity of Main and Sixth streets A moment later and the precise locality of the fire was ascertained to be at the corner of the streets named The Fire Department came promptly on the grounds but experienced some difficulty in obtaining water By the time the water was ready to play the flames were burning fiercely around the two wooden buildings at the corner Streams of water were directed on the several adjoining buildings to dampen the already heated wood and prevent ignition after which the fire itself was fought and soon subdued The corner house was nearly consumed before the flames were extinguished Mr A M Snyder was living in the house next to the corner He was timely awakened by the fire and managed to save nearly everything His loss was about $100 Mrs Snyder was confined to her bed with sickness at the time but was taken across the street to the house of a neighbor on a mattress Too great credit cannot be attributed to the gallant conduct of the firemen The loss is estimated at about $1[illegible]0 and the insurance in the [illegible] Fund [illegible] Company [illegible] the two buildings [illegible] The property belonged to Capt J [illegible] The fire was evidently the work of an incendiary as [illegible] the corner house [illegible] had not been occupied for several weeks

ARREST FOR PERJURY —In the trial of the case of the State vs William Marshall a man named Roebuck was called as a witness by the defense who testified to facts which were so flatly contradicted by the testimony of other reliable witnesses in the case that strong suspicions of false swearing were raised which induced the Prosecuting Attorney to file a complaint against Roebuck A warrant was thereupon issued and Roebuck was lodged in the county jail

WANTS HIS PAY —One of Boss Halleck's special policemen called at the County Clerk's office yesterday presented a certificate of appointment signed by Chief Lappeus and demanded his pay He was informed that that kind of scrip was a good deal below par just at this time

PROSPECTUS.
THE THROUGH LINE!
A RAILROAD JOURNAL, TO BE PUBLISHED weekly in the city of Portland Oregon devoted to the interests of railroads and kindred subjects and especially to the success of th[illegible]
Portland, Dalles and Salt Lake Rail road
In the interest of this road we have already made one campaign wherein against great odds our efforts have been crowned with a fair measure of success It is now a fixed fact, recognized by the Government and becoming attractive to men of capital and influence
With the [illegible] of this paper the we enter upon a second campaign in which the friends of the great work will find it profitable to be united firm and persistent.
We shall early discuss the subject of legitimate and reasonable State aid in the prosecution of the work and as an endorsement of the importance of this deservedly popular enterprise
Preparatory to a renewal of our efforts at the next session of Congress we shall fully discuss the national and local importance of the Portland Dalles and Salt Lake Railroad and through the instrumentality of The Through Line familiarize members of Congress and the American public with the subject in all its bearings The discussion will cover the whole ground and no fact or matter which may be deemed of importance will be allowed to pass unnoticed
The successful completion of the railroads embraced in the system of the Pacific Northwest, we shall give our hearty support in all that is fair and just, and especially shall we endeavor to keep alive and make useful that public sentiment in Oregon everywhere manifested in behalf of the Portland Dalles and Salt Lake Railroad
Our knowledge of the several roads embraced in this system their [illegible] and progress the various laws that have been passed concerning them and the country through which they pass will enable us to give from time to time to the American and European reader reliable and important information connected therewith
Our friends at [illegible] are [illegible] in getting subscribers and giving The Through Line a wide circulation
We have made arrangements for its publication and shall employ a competent assistant in the Editorial Department It will be a twenty column paper, and the first number will be issued on or about the 20th of June inst Subscription $2 50 per annum

A Song for the Times.

Let hard times assail us,
Let poverty nail us
Like mystical [illegible] every old wall,
Let deep tribulation
And [illegible] desolation
Spread over all lands like a general pall,
Though empty our purses,
Though creditors curse us,
And quarters are squeezed till the eagles all scowl,
Let's wear merry faces,
And smiles for all places,
Remembering it's better to grin than to growl.

What though banks are breaking
And "big houses" quaking
Lest one day undo all they ever have done,
Our crossness can't mend it,
Our weeping won't end it.
Why not take the bright side and call it all fun?
Will forfeited pleasures
Or imbecile measures
Bring back our lost confidence till the [illegible] now?
No, no, to-day's sorrow
Brings no brighter to-morrow;
When things will go bad let us grin and not growl.

But let us keep thinking
That though we are sinking
We can't go much further, because it won't pay,
The old saw not forgetting,
That's cured lots of fretting,
"The hour is the darkest just before day."
Though vacant our purses,
Though creditors curse us,
Though quarters are squeezed till the eagles all howl,
Let's keep merry faces
And smiles for all places
For surely 'tis better to grin than to growl.

A Regular Thing.

TWENTY-NINE YEARS DAILY AT DOMINOES AND BEER

From the St. Louis Republican

The force of habit is well illustrated in the conduct of two aged disciples of King Gambrinus, who, during a period of twenty-nine years, have not omitted an afternoon visit to a certain beer hall in this city. There is something peculiar, if not romantic, in the lives of these old gray-haired citizens. They always appear together at or about the same hour of the day or evening. Sit at a certain table, and always play a few games of dominoes and have used the same set of blocks during all these years. It is esteemed a privilege by the persons about the bar to keep these dominoe blocks sacred, and no parties are ever allowed to play with them. As the hour for the daily visits of these ancient customers approach, the frequenters of the hall usually have the seats at the particular table vacant. The old men come, the dominoes are produced and placed on the table, two glasses of beer are drawn for them, the games are played, about two glasses of beer are drank by each, and then they rise from their seats, each pays for what he has drank, and the daily visitors take their depature. For twenty-nine years, without a single day intermitted, has the same scene been enacted by the same men and at about the same hour in the evening. They never drink to excess, take about the same number of glasses of beer each day, remain at the hall about the same length of time, and come and go together. Both have grown old since they commenced their visits. The city has grown in area and population to five times its size when these old customers became patrons of this Palace of Gambrinus. It is curious think that in this period they have made 10,713 visits; sunshine or storm, summer or winter, these veterans are always expected, and never have yet disappointed the expectations.

Mr. Sumner's Speech.

No journal in New England is a more faithful representative of the steady sentiment of that section than the Boston Advertiser. Referring to Mr. Sumner's fierce invective against President Grant, that paper says

There is but one response to Mr. Sumner's speech among his constituents, and that is of unqualified condemnation. The Senator would be astonished, if anything could now astonish him, at the unanimity of opinion on this subject. He described a character which does not exist. He has painted in intense colors the portrait of a lawless and incapable magistrate, but nobody recognizes the likeness. In situations of great difficulty, requiring rare judgment, knowledge of men, and capacity of a very high order, the President has won claims to respect which are not forgotten by the country. "The man who captured Vicksburg and planned the great movements by which the rebellion was crushed, does not lack either ability or patriotism." Mr. Sumner has deceived himself, and where he leads, Massachusetts will be the last State to follow.

FINANCE AND COMMERCE.

FRIDAY EVENING, June 21, 1872.

Gold in New York to-day, 114¼.

Portland Legal Tender rates, 87½c buying; 89c selling.

Wheat in Liverpool 12s 4d@12s 6d; a further decline.

The brig Orient, Wheelwright Master, sailed from San Francisco for this port on the 12th, with a general cargo.

The San Francisco Call of latest mail date says

The prospect of very remunerative freights for Wheat to Liverpool is causing shipowners to send their vessels in this direction. The wind-bound fleet is large and is rapidly increasing. There are now about 30 vessels due, so that supply of tonnage is likely to be ample at the commencement of the season; rates, however, are expected to rule high throughout the year.

Some interesting statistics, showing the increase of business on the trans-continental railroad, are published. During 12 months ending May 1st, 1872, the freight shipments from California by the Central Pacific Railroad aggregated 67,625,370 lbs, against 35,175,072 lbs. for the corresponding period of the year before. For the current fiscal year of the operations of the road it is believed that the freight shipped East will approximate 100,000,000 lbs. The earnings of the road for May last amounted to $1,221,000—an increase of $142,000 over last year—while for the last five months of the year the amount was $4,212,000—an increase of $903,000 over the same time last year, and $1,514,000 over the same time in 1870.

The Albany Register of to-day says: "Quite a number of farmers have assured us that unless we have rain soon the wheat crop of Linn county will not be an average one. For weeks past the atmosphere has been unusually dry for this valley, with little or no dews falling. Without rain the grain will not fill, and the yield will be largely decreased."

It appears that many of our farmers have again committed a blunder in not selling their products at the proper time. An Albany paper says that Wool is now appearing in that market for which buyers are paying 45c ₱ ℔. It adds: "Some weeks ago as high as 50c was offered, but very little could be contracted for at that figure, as those who had or expected to have the article to sell apprehended a fall in price about in a time, and didn't want buyers to lose so heavily, as they would certainly have done had farmers contracted their wool at 50c." Losses of this description are often suffered by our producers. Such experience should teach them valuable lessons. Wool in this market will not now command even 43c. Buyers here are paying 35c ₱ ℔. Very choice lots might bring 40c.

NATIONAL REPUBLICAN PLATFORM

ADOPTED BY THE REPUBLICAN NATIONAL CONVENTION AT PHILADELPHIA, JUNE 6, 1872.

The Republican Party of the United States, assembled in National Convention in the city of Philadelphia on the 5th and 6th days of June, 1872, again declares its faith, appeals to its history, and announces its position upon the questions before the country:

1. During the eleven years of its supremacy it has accepted with grand courage the solemn duties of the time. It has suppressed a gigantic rebellion, emancipated four millions of slaves, decreed the equal citizenship of all and established universal suffrage. Exhibiting unparalleled magnanimity, it criminally punished no man for political offenses and has warmly welcomed all who proved their loyalty by obeying the laws and dealing justly with their neighbors. It has steadily pursued a humane policy toward the Indians, the Pacific Railroad and similar vast enterprises have been generously aided and successfully conducted to completion, the public lands have been freely given to actual settlers, immigration has been protected and encouraged, and a full acknowledgment of the rights of naturalized citizens secured from European powers. In the form of National currency [illegible] has been provided, [illegible] the National credit and sustained it under the most extraordinary burdens. It has negotiated new bonds at lower rates of interest. The revenues have been carefully collected and honestly applied. Despite the annual large reductions from the rates of taxation, the public debt has been reduced during Gen. Grant's Presidency at the rate of $100,000,000 per year. A great financial crisis has been avoided, and peace and plenty prevail throughout the land. Menacing foreign difficulties have been peacefully and honorably compromised, and the honor and power of the Nation kept in high position throughout the world. This glorious record of the past is the party's best pledge for the future, and we believe that the people will not entrust the Government to any party or combination of men composed of those who chiefly have resisted every step in this beneficial progress.

2. Complete liberty and exact equality in the enjoyment of all civil, political and public rights should be established and effectually maintained throughout the Union by efficient and appropriate State and Federal legislation. Neither law nor its administration should admit of any discrimination in respect to citizens by reason of race, creed, color, or previous condition of servitude.

3. The recent amendments to the National Constitution should be cordially sustained because they are right, not merely tolerated because they are law, and should be carried out according to their spirit by appropriate legislation the enforcement of which can be safely trusted only to the party that secured the amendments.

4. The National Government seeks to maintain an honorable peace with all nations, protecting its citizens everywhere, and sympathizing with all peoples who strive for greater liberty.

5. Any system of civil service under which the subordinate positions of the Government are considered rewards for mere party zeal, is fatally demoralizing, and we therefore favor a reform of the system by laws which shall abolish the evils of patronage and make honesty, efficiency and fidelity the essential qualifications for public position, without practically creating a life tenure of office.

6. We are opposed to further grants of public lands to corporations and monopolies, and demand that the National domain be set apart for free settlement by the people.

7. The annual revenue, after paying current debts, should furnish a moderate balance for the reduction of the principal of the public debt, and except so much as may be derived from a tax on tobacco and liquors, it should be raised by duties on importations, which should be so adjusted as to aid in securing remunerative wages to labor, and to promote the industries and growth and prosperity of the whole country.

8. We hold in undying honor the soldiers and sailors whose valor saved the Union. Their pensions are a sacred debt of the nation, and the widows and orphans of those who died for the country are entitled to the care of a generous and grateful people. We favor such additional legislation as will extend the bounty of the Government to all our soldiers and sailors who were honorably discharged, and who in the line of duty became disabled, without regard to length of service or the cause of such discharge.

9. The doctrine of Great Britain and other European powers concerning allegiance, "once a subject always a subject," having at last, through the efforts of the Republican party, been abandoned, and the American idea of the right of an individual to transfer his allegiance having been accepted by European nations, it is the duty of our Government to guard with jealous care the rights of adopted citizens against the assumption of unauthorized claims by their former Government, and we urge continued and careful encouragement and protection to voluntary emigration.

10. The franking privilege ought to be abolished and a way prepared for reductions in the rates of postage.

11. Among the questions which press for attention is that which concerns the relations of capital and labor, and the Republican party recognize the duty of shaping legislation so as to secure a full protection and ample field for capital, and for labor which creates capital, the largest opportunities and a just share of the mutual profits of these two great servants of civilization.

12. We hold that Congress and the President have only fulfilled an important duty in their measures for the suppression of violent and treasonable organizations in certain lately rebellious regions and for the protection of the ballot, and therefore they are entitled to the thanks of the Nation.

13. We denounce the repudiation of public debts, in any form or disguise, as a national crime. We witness with pride the reduction of the principal of that debt, and of the rates of interest upon the balance, and confidently expect that our excellent national currency will be perfected by a speedy resumption of specie payment.

14. The Republican party is mindful of its obligations to the loyal women of America for their noble devotion to the cause of freedom, their application for admission to further usefulness is received with satisfaction, and the honest demands of any class of citizens for additional rights should be treated with respectful consideration.

15. We heartily approve of the action of Congress in granting amnesty to those engaged in the rebellion, and rejoice in the growth of peace and fraternal feeling throughout the land.

16. The Republican party proposes to respect the rights reserved by the people to themselves as carefully as the powers delegated by them to the State and Federal governments. It disapproves of resorting to unconstitutional laws for the purpose of removing evils by the interference with rights not surrendered by the people to either the State or National Government.

17. It is the duty of the General Government to adopt such measures as will tend to encourage American commerce and ship building.

18. We believe that the modest patriotism, the earnest purpose, sound judgment, practical wisdom, incorruptible integrity and illustrious services of U. S. Grant have commended him to the heart of the American people, and with him at our head we start to-day on a new march to victory.

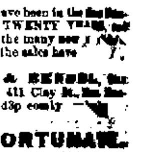
TO THE UNFORTUNATE.

NEW REMEDIES, NEW [illegible]

Dr. Gibbon's Dispensary,



623 KEARNEY STREET, NEAR COMMERCIAL, San Francisco. Established in 1854, for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases, such as Gonorrhoea, Gleet, Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness, Impotency, etc. Skin Diseases (of years standing) and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated.

DR. GIBBON has the pleasure of announcing that he has returned from visiting the principal hospitals of Europe, and has resumed practice at his office, 623 Kearny street, corner of Commercial, San Francisco, where his old patients and those requiring his services may find him.

The Doctor has spared neither time nor money in seeking out new remedies, and has returned with [illegible] facilities for the alleviation of human suffering.

Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands of persons, both male and female, are there who are suffering out a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgences, or from diseases absorbed into the system? Look at their pallid, emaciated and disfigured faces and their broken-down constitutions, disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life. In this horrid state thousands suffer until death closes the scene. Let parents, guardians, friends, attend to those who are suffering from any of these horrible, life-destroying maladies, and see that they are cared for and cured before it be too late. Send them immediately to DR. GIBBON, a physician who has made private diseases his especial study for years, and who is certain to cure the most inveterate case, without mercury or any injurious drugs. It is important to those who are afflicted, or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends to be careful of the many pretended doctors who infest all cities, publishing their skill in curing all diseases in a few days, imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places. Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry, or you may fall into the hands of these charlatans.

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Emissions, the consequence of self-abuse, solitary vice or depraved sexual indulgence, is practiced by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent, producing with unerring certainty, the following train of morbid symptoms, unless combatted by scientific medical measures, viz: Sallow countenance, dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears, noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots, uneasiness about the loins, weakness of the limbs, confused vision, blunted intellect, loss of confidence, diffidence in approaching strangers, a dislike to form new acquaintances, a disposition to shun society, loss of memory, hectic flushes, pimples and various eruptions about the face, furred tongue, feted breath, coughs, consumption, night sweats, monomania and frequent insanity. If relief be not obtained, should apply immediately, either in person or by letter, and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease, which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure. Dr. G. will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily that he was cured of this complaint by others of the San Francisco quacks.

MARRIED MEN,

Or those who contemplate marriage, who are afflicted by [illegible] any of these fearful maladies, should not forget the [illegible] to [illegible] upon them nor delay to obtain immediate relief.

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible, and will give to each patient a written instrument, binding himself to effect a [illegible] and permanent cure, or make no charge.

CURED AT HOME.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME, by addressing a letter to Dr. Gibbon, stating case, symptoms, length of time the disease has continued, and have medicines promptly forwarded, free from damage and curiosity, to any part of the country, with full and plain directions for use, by inclosing Ten Dollars coin, in a registered letter through the Postoffice or through Wells, Fargo & Co. A package of medicine will be forwarded to any part of the Union.

All communications strictly confidential.

Caution to the Unfortunate.

Beware of the San Francisco quacks and pretenders, all [illegible] with bogus sworn to certificates, dupe the unwary. Some of the self-styled doctors, whose names are to be found in the daily and weekly newspapers of San Francisco and other places, are fraudulent and because too lazy to work at their trades. Some are [illegible] keepers, [illegible] newspaper carriers. Intelligence office keepers, etc. The only way to avoid imposition is to make inquiry. It will cost you nothing, and may save you many regrets, for, as advertising physicians in eight cases out of ten are bogus, there is no safety in trusting any of them until you know who and what they are. [illegible] [illegible] to deceive people by exhibiting bogus [illegible] pretended patients' letters, etc. [illegible] [illegible] persons who may call at his office of [illegible] the [illegible] disease that he proposes to cure.

Address DR. J. F. GIBBON, 623 Kearney street, corner Commercial, San Francisco, Post Office Box 1,957. REMEMBER, DR. GIBBON, 1,957 ON THE LETTER. Cure Warranted. [illegible]

Correspondents will please inform DR. GIBBON that they read his advertisement in the Daily Oregonian.
